The outcome of this proceeding may limit or completely take away the Respondent's right to make decisions about the Respondent's personal affairs or financial affairs or both. The Respondent must appear in person unless excused by the court. The Petitioner is required to make reasonable efforts to help the Respondent attend the hearing.

The Respondent has the right to be represented by an attorney of the Respondent's choice at the Respondent's expense. If the Respondent cannot afford an attorney, one may be appointed for the Respondent at State expense. The Respondent may request a professional evaluation. The Respondent has the right to present evidence and subpoena witnesses and documents; examine witnesses, including any court-appointed physician, psychologist, or other qualified individual providing evaluations, and the court visitor; and otherwise participate in the hearing. The Respondent may ask that the hearing be held in a manner that reasonably accommodates the Respondent. The Respondent has the right to request that the hearing be closed, but the hearing may not be closed over the Respondent's objection.
