INSTRUCTIONS

1. The marriage license application must be completed and submitted to the Bureau of Vital Statistics (Bureau) or a local Alaska Court before a marriage license is issued. The Groom and the Bride must complete their section of the application.
2. Applications should be submitted to the Bureau office or Alaska Court that is closest to where the marriage ceremony will be performed or where the Groom or Bride can easily pick up the marriage license. Addresses and locations of Alaska Courts can be found on the Courts' website: www.state.ak.us/courtdir.htm
3. Marriage licenses to be picked up in Anchorage, Fairbanks, or Juneau must be sent to the respective Bureau office. The courts in these cities will not accept marriage applications.
4. Either Groom or Bride may begin the application process. Once the application is received, there is a 3-day waiting period before the marriage license can be issued.
5. The Groom and Bride must present a government-issued photo ID showing their name and date of birth before a marriage license can be issued. Both persons must sign in the presence of a licensing officer and be sworn in by a licensing officer.
6. Both parties must be at least 18 years of age for a marriage license to be issued without consent from parents or legal guardians. Exception: an applicant who is under the age of 18, a member of the U.S. armed forces, and on active duty.
7. If either person is at least 16 years of age and under 18 years of age, they must have written consent from their legal parents. A birth certificate must be issued within 30 days of the date of the marriage license and must be submitted with the marriage application.
8. If either person is 14 or 15 years of age, a court order allowing the person to be married is required before the marriage license can be issued.
9. If either person has previously been married, the number of previous marriages and the dates the marriage(s) ended must be stated on the application.
10. The license fee is $50.00. This fee does not include the cost of a certified copy of the marriage certificate that is issued after the marriage is solemnized. Marriage certificate request forms can be downloaded from the Bureau's website at: www.vitalrecords.alaska.gov

You must pick up your marriage license at the Vital Statistics office or the Alaska Court where you sent the marriage license application prior to the marriage ceremony.
