I have continuously held an active Producer license with Life authority in my resident state for at least one year. Yes____ No____

By signing this form, I agree to comply with CSG §38a-465 Life Settlements.

All references to "broker" mean "Life Settlement Broker".

A life insurance producer, who has been duly licensed as a resident insurance producer with a life line of authority in this state for not less than one year, or a nonresident producer who has been duly licensed as a resident insurance producer in their home state for not less than one year and is licensed as a nonresident producer with life authority in this state pursuant to section 38a-702g, shall be deemed to meet the licensing requirements of this section and shall be permitted to operate as a Life Settlement broker.

Not later than thirty days from the first day of operating as a broker, a life insurance producer shall notify the commissioner, and shall pay a filing fee of $26.00 as specified in section 38a-11 of the 2009 supplement to the general statutes, as amended by this act. Such notification shall include an acknowledgement by the life insurance producer that said producer shall operate as a broker in accordance with this part.

NOTE: Registration is not required if you hold an active Viatical/Life Settlement Broker License in Connecticut.
